

Senate Filibuster May End By Compromise

Leaders Are Called Into Secret Huddle

Washington, March 12—(AP)—The Senate tonight appeared about to end its 12-day filibuster in a compromise.

It recessed abruptly in the midst of a night session and leaders of administration Democrats, southern Democrats and Republicans were called into a "secret" huddle Sunday.

Majority leader Lucas (D-Ill.) told the Senate that these groups expected to work out a settlement. This would head off round-the-clock sessions which he had threatened to start Monday to break the filibuster.

Compromise Is Possible

Lucas, with a broad smile, warned that no definite agreement had been reached as yet but quickly added that a compromise is possible.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), leader, and Republican leader Wherry of Nebraska agreed cautiously, apparently wary about the bargaining yet to take place. Invited to the "secret session" Sunday are Lucas and deputy Democratic leader Myers (Pa.), Republican leader Wherry (Neb.) and GOP Senator Saltonstall (Mass.) and Knowland (Calif.) and Senators Russell and Byrd (D-Va.) from the Dixie group, as well as Senator Hayden (D-Ariz.), chairman of the Senate rules committee.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), a leader among the filibustering southerners, told a reporter he, too, was "pretty hopeful" of a compromise.

Earlier Lucas had threatened "round-the-clock sessions beginning Monday in an effort to break the two weeks talkathon."

Throughout the day, Lucas, Vice President Barkley and other administration figures had been trying to work out an acceptable formula for closing the long fight.

Meanwhile Senate Eastland (D-Miss.) kept the ball rolling for the southerners who are out to smash an attempt to alter the rules against unlimited debate. With only a handful of senators in the chamber he held the floor for five and a half hours talking against the proposed change in rules sponsored by the administration and some Republicans.

The proposed new rule would allow the Senate to cut off debate at any time by a two-thirds vote. Southerners see in it an attempt to put across President Truman's civil rights program.

On Lucas' motion, the Senate recessed until noon Monday.

While he said he could not definitely promise a compromise could be reached over Sunday, he appeared very hopeful.

He gave no hint of the nature of the formula.

However, Byrd said the southerners were demanding two assurances: First, that there continue to be unlimited debate upon a motion to take up any change in Senate rules. (That is what is going on now.)

Second, that no compromise can be used later to obtain a gag rule through a "bare majority of the Senate as advocated by President Truman."

Wilmington, Del., March 12—(AP)—A 43-year-old Negro took 10 lashes at the whipping post today for wife beating.

It was the first time the New Castle county whipping post was used since 1946.

William H. Wright, of nearby Wilmam, pleaded guilty to beating his wife, Lillie. Chief Justice Charles S. Richards of general sessions court imposed sentence of 10 lashes and a year in prison.

Wife beating is a misdemeanor under Delaware law. It is punishable by five to 30 lashes plus imprisonment.

Some 30 people watched the whipping, which was open to the public. The whipping post, seldom used in recent times, was fixed as criminal punishment largely for wife beaters.

TOO BUSY TO GIVE CROOKS HIS MONEY

Winnipeg, March 12—(AP)—Henry Dinn was too busy at the center of his Chinese restaurant today for holdups.

"Go way, I'm busy," he told two men demanding money.

One of them repeated that it was a holdup. He emphasized the point by thrusting his hand in a pocket to indicate a gun.

"Quit fooling around and leave," said Henry.

They left. Police arrested two suspects nearby.

CIO Union Urges 4th Round Wage Increases

Washington, March 12—(AP)—The CIO today called for (1) "substantial" fourth round wage increases, (2) a slash in corporation profits, and (3) an expanded security program for workers.

"If the country fails to take these corrective steps, a serious depression condition is almost certain to develop," said the CIO news. The labor organization's weekly newspaper summarized the thinking of CIO economists and researchers.

The CIO said that prices are not dropping, so wages must be lifted.

It didn't call it a fourth round increase (there have been three since the war ended). But it spoke in general terms, saying:

"Substantial wage increases will provide a great reservoir of buying power. They will help relieve the piling up of merchandise and the drop in jobs in the consumer goods industries."

Corporation profit "must be trimmed for the common good," the CIO said.

"The high rate of profit is throwing the economy out of kilter. It has led to cutting of production, and to limitation of expanded production capacity," the paper said.

The three-pronged program "is obviously called for," the CIO said, because full employment is threatened now for the first time since the war.

Increased social security and unemployment compensation benefits also are needed, the CIO said. Better employment services and perhaps travel allowances to permit workers in areas with a dim job outlook to seek employment in other areas would help, the publication added.

Record Of Robert E. Lee Still Tops On Mississippi R.

St. Louis, March 12—(AP)—The ghost of the storied old Mississippi river steambot Robert E. Lee came in ahead of the modern diesel towboat Harry Truman today, and a speed record of 79 years standing remained in the books.

On the New Orleans-to-St. Louis run, the Truman lagged by one hour and 17 minutes. The Lee record is three days, 18 hours and 14 minutes.

There were differences. The Lee had no cargo and was stripped down for his race with the Natchez. The Truman pushed a barge loaded with 1,100 tons.

On Lucas' motion, the Senate recessed until noon Monday.

While he said he could not definitely promise a compromise could be reached over Sunday, he appeared very hopeful.

Say Pact May Solve Problem Of U. S. Island Air Bases

Washington, March 12—(AP)—High U. S. officials told Denmark's foreign minister today that the Atlantic treaty would provide a "framework" to solve the long-pending problem of American air bases on Greenland.

American strategists are known to believe that if American bases in Greenland, Iceland and the Azores or use of them—can be arranged under the pact it will permanently strengthen defenses of the entire Atlantic area.

But today's talk between state department leaders and Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen provided the first definite information that American officials do in fact feel the treaty will greatly ease the base solution.

Rasmussen, Danish Ambassador Henrik De Kauffmann and other Danish diplomats went to the state department for Rasmussen's second conference on the treaty. He seeks to ascertain the benefits and obligations for Denmark in joining.

Today the Danish state department Counselor Charles E. Bohlen, Assistant Secretary Ernest Gross, John D. Hickerson, chief of the department's European office, and other policy making officials.

When Rasmussen left he told reporters in response to questions that the group talked about prospects for American military aid to western Europe under the treaty. He said they "also discussed several aspects of the Greenland problem."

He said that he did not expect any immediate solution but was concerned with looking for the facts on which the solution might some day be based.

Brothers Fight Bloody Knife-Axe Duel To The Death

Miami, Fla., March 12—(AP)—Two brothers fought a bloody knife-axe duel to the death tonight in a Miami home.

The fight ended with one sprawled dead on the living room floor and the other bleeding from two axe wounds.

Detective C. B. Newton of the Miami homicide bureau identified the dead man as Frank Wynn, 31, and said his brother, Ralph, 28, was held for investigation pending an inquest.

Both lived in the same house, along with Frank's wife, Wilma, 27, and their five year old son, Roy. Ralph is not married.

Newton said it all began when Ralph drove up to the house and bumped into Frank's car. An argument started and continued inside the house.

Finally, the detective said, Frank got an axe and shouted: "Buddy, you are looking for it and I am going to give it to you."

Ralph snatched up a bowie knife, Newton said, and the two swung and slashed at each other with their deadly weapons.

Other members of the family fled out the back door when the fight started.

Pope Pius XII Celebrates 11th Year Of Reign

Vatican City, March 12—(AP)—Pope Pius XII entered the eleventh year of his reign today with renewed pledges from the faithful to strengthen his hand against world communism.

Cardinals, prelates, priests and diplomats assigned to the Holy See gathered in the great Sistine chapel for St. Peter's for a solemn pontifical mass marking the twentieth anniversary of the coronation.

The mass was celebrated by Benedetto Cardinal Aloisi Masella, the first of the cardinals now present in Rome to have been elevated by this pontiff to the sacred college. At the end of the mass the pope imparted his apostolic benediction to all present.

Renewed pledges of loyalty came to the pope from Catholics all over the world, from leaders of the Italian government, and from Italian Catholic action, an organization of militant church members. Catholic action pledged itself anew to defend the pontiff from "violent, insidious attacks" and to give him "active loyalty and solid devotion."

Ask Murray Speak At FEW Convention

Chicago, March 12—(AP)—CFO President Philip Murray was asked today to address the convention of the Farm Equipment Workers union, which has been ordered by the CIO to merge with the United Auto Workers.

The convention opens March 25 in Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Grant W. Oakes, FE president, disclosed the invitation to Murray. Oakes told Murray, in a letter, the FE would set its future policy at the convention and the delegates would appreciate the "benefit of your judgments on the subjects of your collaboration."

COP TRAPPED ON WALL BY NAIL AND BELT

London, March 12—(AP)—Police Sergeant F. R. Miller sheepishly explained why he was missing from his beat this morning.

He climbed a wall to investigate a noise in a building. He started to jump down, but a spike caught his belt.

"My feet were about a foot from the ground," said the sergeant. "I flashed my lamp at traffic but nobody paid any attention."

After hanging in the chill air for half an hour the sergeant managed to unfasten his belt and finish the jump.

GIRAUD NOT HONORED

Paris, March 12—(AP)—National honors will be paid to Gen. Henri Honore Giraud, 70, who died last night in Dijon. The national assembly, lower house of the French parliament, tonight voted 3,500,000 francs ($11,000) for the expenses of a state funeral for the hero of two World Wars.

9,600 Mile Hop Tops B-36 Distance Record

50,000 R. R. Workers Hit By Mine Walkout

By the Associated Press

More than 50,000 railroad workers felt the impact Saturday of John L. Lewis' order directing his United Mine Workers to stay out of the nation's coal pits for the next two weeks.

Lewis has told his 400,000 miners to stay away from the mines starting Monday as a protest against President Truman's appointment of James Boyd as bureau of mines director.

Lewis' surprise move brought a quick reaction from at least five railroads engaged in carrying coal. The Pennsylvania railroad announced it would furlough 20,000 employees for the duration of the mine shutdown. Other roads that announced layoffs resulting from the mine situation include the Chesapeake & Ohio, 10,000; Norfolk & Western, 4,500; Louisville & Nashville, 1,500; and the New York Central, 600.

Thousands of other workers in allied industries were expected to feel the pinch as the work stoppage progressed.

Operations of the Railway Express agency were down to a mere trickle in the New York City area where agency officials announced they would lay off 9,000 workers as a result of a slowdown.

Thousands already are idle in a wage and hour dispute between the agency and the AFL Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks union. The slowdown started Tuesday as a protest against what union spokesmen described as "stalling" by the company in negotiations.

The union is demanding a 40-hour, five-day week and a wage boost of 25 cents an hour. The workers presently are employed 44 hours a week and earn from $1.32 to $1.34 an hour.

In Chicago conferences on an agreement on a five day week for 1,000,000 non-operating railroad workers proceeded. There was no indication of how soon a written agreement might be expected.

Charges Bulgaria Is Not Allowing Religious Freedom

London, Sunday, March 12—(AP)—Britain charged today that Bulgaria has no intention of living up to her peace treaty guarantees of political and religious freedom.

The charge was made in a sharp protest against the trial of 15 Protestant church leaders. It declared the churchmen's confessions that they spied for Britain were "completely false," and added: "Religious freedom in eastern Europe is under a deliberate general attack."

Four of the Protestant leaders were sentenced to life and the others to one to 15 years last week after they pleaded guilty to espionage and other charges.

The British note was delivered yesterday to the Bulgarian foreign minister in Sofia.

An informed source close to the foreign office said Britain may "take stronger steps" later.

Tells GOP To Stop 'Trying To Be All Things To All Men'

DeKalb, Ill., March 12—(AP)—The Republican party tonight was called upon to stop "weaseling" and to quit "trying to be all things to all men."

In a speech prepared for delivery at a John E. Rierson Republican league dinner here, Nebraska governor Val Peterson said:

"Let's have the courage to face every American problem squarely and tell the people what we propose as its solution. Let's stand upon principle, and face the consequences manfully."

He pointed out that defeat of a political party was not so important to the nation. However, he declared, impairment of our "system of institutional government and free economic society would be tragic" to the entire world.

The Nebraska governor said it was time political parties recognized that all classes and groups "must be subjected to the overall welfare of the people and the nation."

"They lose their right to existence when, merely to keep in power, they panders to every whim of the special groupings which make up our society."

Peterson called for a Republican party which would serve the needs of the people without imposing a total authority over their welfare and liberties.

CARS SLIP INTO RIVER

Memphis, Tenn., March 12—(AP)—Barge cleaning operations on the Wolf river levee here left a coating of grease 30 feet up from the water. Yacht Club Manager J. E. Croas said at least 50 unoccupied cars had slipped into the water since Tuesday.

States Germ Warfare Not Yet Superweapon

Washington, March 12—(AP)—Aldan H. Waitt, chief of the army's chemical corps.

Waitt, in a news conference based on Forrestal's formal statement, said:

"This method of warfare has great potentialities—but it is a weapon of the future. I am satisfied that this is a most potentially important weapon. I have no doubt as to its practicability."

Forrestal warned we must guard against saboteurs striking with disease weapons before a declaration of war. He said our food supplies would be especially vulnerable to such a biological attack.

The government, after an original press release on biological warfare in 1946, had up to now clamped the tightest type of secrecy on the whole project. It had refused, among other things, to let any military personnel even mention the name of biological warfare.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 12—(AP)—A Crippled B-36 superbomber landed at Carswell air base today with a new distance record for these giant planes.

The great silver ship, with two of its six pusher-type engines dead, touched earth after a 9,600-mile non-stop, non-refueling flight over the nation.

For 5,000 miles, the B-36 had carried 10,000 pounds of bombs.

Two propellers were motionless as the superbomber came in for a gentle landing at 7:57 a.m. central standard time. It had been airborne 43 hours and 37 minutes since roaring away from Carswell at 12:20 p.m. (CST) Thursday. It carried its big bomb load for 24 hr. and 55 min.

Tops Record By 687 Miles

The sensational flight topped by 687 miles the former B-36 record distance flight last Dec. 6-7. That was a dramatic hop from Fort Worth to Honolulu and return ending on Pearl Harbor Bay.

The flight failed by 1,636 miles to equal the non-refueling distance record of 11,236 miles. This was made by the truculent turtle, a two-engine Navy Patrol plane which flew from Perth, Australia to Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 1, 1948.

Carswell base announced the plane had two hours of fuel left when it landed. Maj. John D. Bartlett, project officer for B-36 training for the 7th bombardment wing of the 8th Air Force, ordered the plane down because two engines had failed today and weather was closing in on the field.

The route of the bomber took it northward over Minneapolis; westward to Great Falls, Mont.; and eastward across the nation to Key West, Fla., where President Truman is vacationing.

The B-36, big as three five-room houses, dropped its tremendous bomb load in the Gulf of Mexico at 1:15 p.m. central standard time yesterday.

Then it headed over Fort Worth, past Denver, and last night it sighted Great Falls, Mont., for the second time. An hour and 22 minutes later it throbbed over Spokane and turned southeastward for the long, last lap home.

Over Wyoming the bomber bucked into terrific headwinds. Bartlett said it had not been for these headwinds and the engine trouble, the plane could have exceeded 10,000 miles.

The superbomber, with Capt. Roy Showalter of Mobile, Ala., as pilot and commander and Lt. Clarence E. Horton of San Antonio as co-pilot, carried a crew of only 10 men instead of the usual 15.

Other crewmen included Maj. Joseph A. Brown, Gillespie, Ill., responsible for dropping the bomb load.

Operate On King George To Relieve Ailment Of Leg

London, March 12—(AP)—A gray-haired Scottish surgeon operated on King George VI today in the hope of relieving his serious leg ailment.

The nine royal doctors who gathered around an operating table set up in a Buckingham Palace bedroom reported later the King's condition was "entirely satisfactory."

A later bulletin tonight said the King "had a restful day" and his recovery from the operation is "proceeding smoothly."

The operation was brief, but delicate.

The surgeon, Prof. James R. Learmonth, severed a nerve near the spine which controls the tension of the main artery in the King's right leg.

For five months King George has suffered from faulty blood circulation in the legs that might have caused gangrene and loss of the feet.

By cutting the nerve—an operation called lumbar sympathectomy—the doctors hoped to relax the artery and permit the blood to flow more freely.

According to a wall tablet in Florence, Italy, spectacles were invented in the 13th century by an inhabitant of that city.

A ONE-HOP WORLD

Magellan's eyes would have popped. So would Jules Verne's just to see a ship leap into the air and return to earth on the Texas plains. But to see one jump from Fort Worth to Fort Worth the long way—around the globe—that is something to put a glint of wonder into the eyes even of modern circumnavigators.

This feat of an American bomber is more than spectacular. It stirs popular thought from traditional concepts. It helps us to think in terms of the air ocean, prepares us to plan more actively for the tremendous possibilities of world unity that lie in fuller use of that boundary-spurning bridge between the nations. We are only beginning to grasp the economic and political implications of such developments in communication. And doubtless the air force wishes us not to miss the military implications.

These are very much to the fore at a moment when Congress is pondering a budget that curbs the program for a 70-group air force. The Fort Worth-to-Fort Worth flight will be seized on by extremists who argue that long-range bombers can win a war. This school of thought would make Americans Maginot-minded—relying on one seemingly simple means of defense.

It is well to break earth-bound prejudices that would limit proper developments and use of long-range planes. But exploits like this prove little about their value as a weapon.

Fuzzy's House Of Many Colors

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(P)—Planning to help the little woman with her spring housecleaning chores?

Well, if you decide to save money by doing the painting yourself, better think twice. That is the advice of Fuzzy Macaskill, who had the same idea, too.

Fuzzy is a good friend of mine, a kind, generous man with a heart of purest gold—and five big thumbs on each hand.

The other day he had a week's vacation coming. He decided he'd be busy in the pocket if he spent the week repainting his home. With brush and can he attacked the kitchen and turned it a violent yellow.

"Perhaps another coat would help, dear," said his wife.

So Fuzzy stayed up all night and slapped on another coat. Somehow the paint seemed to get yellower near the bottom of the can. His wife took a look in the morning and said:

"I don't feel well, dear. I think I'll go over to daughter's and stay with her for the rest of the week."

Still in Love With Work
Fuzzy, so paint-spotted he looked like a patch of dandelions, thought that would be fine. It would leave him free to assault the living room, bath and front porch. The rest of the house wasn't in need of fresh paint.

At this point Fuzzy was still in love with his work. He had just finished daubing the living room when a neighbor called: "Your dog, Skippy, just ran up the street."

Fuzzy caught the dog after a two-block run. When he got Skippy in the house, he tried to chase him upstairs. Skippy thought it was a great game. He ricocheted off the newly painted living room walls several times, then he tripped on a cord of a big floor lamp. Down crashed the lamp—in ruins.

Fuzzy Gets Tired
The bathroom came next. Fuzzy was tiring. He took naps between times as he painted the walls and ceiling. The result: Three tones of an original color which Fuzzy himself could only describe as "a matter of opinion."

Absent-mindedly Fuzzy sat down on a toilet seat which he had trimmed in black enamel. It didn't dried.

Wary of all paint, Fuzzy decided to surprise his wife by cleaning the venetian blinds in the living room. He decided it would be easier to wash the dirt off the wooden slats. So he dunked the blinds in a bathtub full of warm water and let them soak for a half hour.

They Weren't Wood
"Those wooden slats weren't wood at all," said Fuzzy. "They were cardboard—cardboard that curled and shrank, too."

He sighed and went on to another task—giving the living room an enamel trim. The next day he found, sorrowfully, that one of the cans he had used was flat paint instead of enamel.

Fuzzy gazed around. He had a kitchen that looked like it was suffering from jaundice, a three-tone bathroom, a streaky living room with a half flat and half enamel trim. He put away his paint brush in disgust.

"I am expecting my wife back any day now," said Fuzzy. "And there's a greeting for her as soon as she opens the door. I tacked up a sign that says:

"To hell with the front porch."

More Than Fourth
Of Red Cross Goal
Reached to Date

John Bellatti, public information chairman of the 1949 American Red Cross fund campaign, announced Saturday that $2,647.95 of the $10,000 goal has been received, according to reports made to date.

The county goal, set at $2,000, has been nearly half reached, with $937.10 collected thus far. The only complete report from the county area is that of Murphysville, with Mrs. Louise Cullen as chairman.

The special gifts division has attained $1,190.50 of its $1,500 goal. Reports from the other divisions, including national firms, schools and institutions, business, residential and clubs and organizations, are not yet complete.

The first report meeting will be held in the County Fair room of the Dunlap hotel, with Friday noon, March 18, set as the tentative date. Workers will be notified of any change in plans.

Housecleaning Time
On Streets, Boulevards

Spring housecleaning is underway on Jacksonville streets and boulevards. The mechanical street sweeper, which was kept in the garage several weeks while ice covered the streets, is making the rounds again. The public square has been given an old-fashioned washing with hoses attached to the hydrants.

The street sweeper, manned by Melvin Smith at the controls, begins its daily trips at 2 a. m., when the number of parked cars is at minimum. The sweeper usually quits operation at noon or early in the afternoon when parked cars become so numerous that the sweeper cannot move into the curb.

O. H. Spaulding, superintendent of the street department, assigned men to go ahead of the street sweeper in many places to clear up litter caused by limbs brought down by the sleet, and cinders which were scattered for protection of drivers and pedestrians.

During the sleet period between seven and eight car loads of cinders were scattered at intersections. A considerable amount of these abrasives has gone into sewers, but much of it remained to be scooped and swept up by the street department.

Almost every boulevard in the city was littered by limbs as a result of two sleet storms. The job of cleaning the boulevards of limbs is now almost completed, many truck loads of trash having been hauled to the city dump grounds.

The street superintendent said Saturday that more than 100 truck loads of dirt have been swept from pavements and hauled away. In some instances it is used for filling low places on vacant lots.

Washing the pavement on the public square was done late at night when few cars were in the way. The police department assisted the

The Hague—(P)—The Netherlands claims the world's lowest death rate are: 8.0, 11.4, 10.2, and 9.0 per thousand for 1948, with 7.4 per thousand, the same Central Statistic Bureau reports. Compared with prewar years, the thousand.

Dutch population has increased 10 per cent, a figure equal to that of the U. S. A.

Present death figures compare favorably with pre-war figures. Over the years 1936-1939, figures were 8.7 per thousand, representing a total of 72,379 deaths annually. In 1946, 80,151; in 1947, 77,646; in 1948, 72,369.

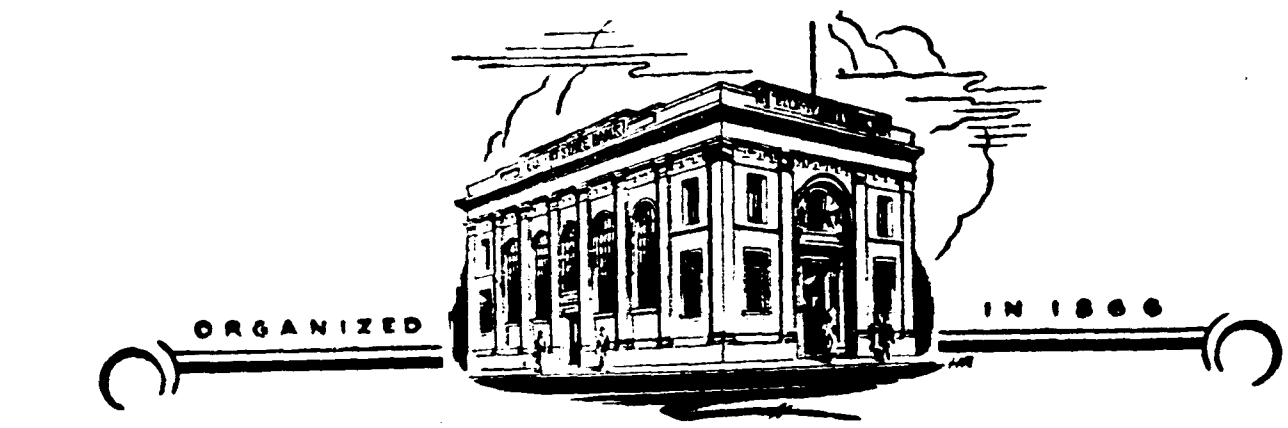

Marriage figures are on the increase, too. Average annual figures over 1936-1939 were 69,179, while 87,680 marriages were contracted over 1946. Marriage figures which went up by leaps and bounds after the war had hardly subsided. Average figures over 1939, 1946, 1947, 1948 are: 8.0, 11.4, 10.2, and 9.0 per thousand. Birth figures over the same years are 20.3, 30.2, 27.8 and 25.3 per thousand.

Black light is playing an important part in the inspection of railroad car axles and other parts for flaws and defects. Axle inspection can be made in about two minutes.

The shine now can be removed from pants or skirts by putting a permanent wave in the fibers. A new acid-and-abrasive-free liquid preparation that removes the shine from clothing without injuring the fabric has been made available to dry cleaners.

Detecting a flaw 1/500th of an inch wide in a boring 35 feet long, a task comparable to finding a pin scratch inside the grampipe of a three-story house, now can be accomplished by a new inspection method.

Hawaii Plans Atomic Defense For Islands

Honolulu—(AP)—The twice-shielded defenders of Hawaii are preparing for an atomic attack on the islands. Geiger counters, other instruments for the detection of radioactivity, and men trained to use them are on the spot. More are coming.

Last summer an air defense officer—Lt. Col. Lloyd J. Vaughan of Long Beach, Cal.—decided it would be a good idea if Hawaii's armed services got together and exchanged information on defense measures against an atomic blast. Vaughan is chemical, ordnance and radiological defense officer, Pacific air command.

After talks with the Navy, Army and Marine Corps, a radiological defense training school at Pearl Harbor was established under Rear Adm. Charles C. McMorris, commander of the Hawaiian sea frontier. Since then four classes of officers from all branches of the service have been trained in the mysteries of detecting radioactivity. The courses take six days. Personnel dealing in poison gases in the army and air force are given priority students.

"The students are trained as monitors," Col. Vaughan explained, "to go out after an attack and determine the amount of radioactivity present."

Among the subjects taught are the effects of the blast itself—the heat and ultra violet rays and the blinding light that accompany nuclear fission. Instructors demonstrate the use of Geiger counters and other atomic defense instruments. Then the students use the instruments themselves. The work with radioactive materials.

The main defense today against an atomic bomb comes after the blast. It is to prevent increased casualties from contamination. Affected areas are isolated to prevent people from entering them and becoming exposed.

Col. Vaughan emphasizes that it is still considered impossible to neutralize radioactivity except by removing the contaminated materials.

Welcome, Sweet Springtime, Greet Thee With---Oops!

Someone told Artist John Sunley (the poor man's Salvador Dali) that Spring, 1949, arrives officially at 5:49 p. m., EST. March 20. That night, when he went to bed, he dreamed a dream of spring and all it means. In a state of somnambulistic spring fever, he started sleep-walking. He walked over to his easel, picked up his brushes and—still fast asleep—started to paint. When he awoke next morning the fantasy above was leering at him from his easel. Soon after, Artist Sunley was taken away by the man in the little white coat.

Good Job-Hunts 3 Years In Advance

St. Leonards, Sussex, England—(AP)—Like most children his age, 8-year-old Roger Casement would like to be a railroad engineer.

Roger, however, has done something about it besides wishing. He has filed his application with the British railways to be taken on as an apprentice engine driver when he is 16. And it has been accepted.

Roger's letter read: "I would like to be an engine driver on your railway. I would like to drive a steam engine. My age is 8 years old on Jan. 19. Will you please put my name on your employment list? I will be leaving school when I am 16."

From John Elliott, chief officer of the Southern Region of the nationalized railway system, Roger has this reply:

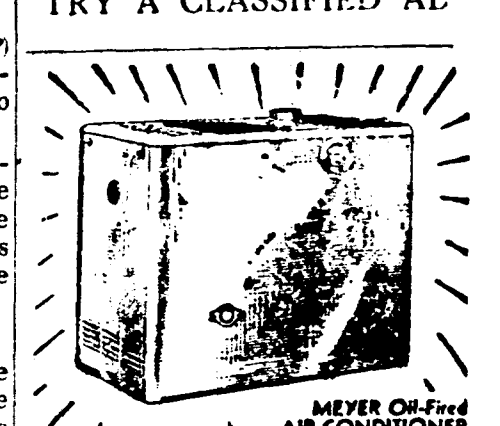

"I have had pleasure in arranging for your name to be recorded for employment as an engine cleaner when you leave school, as this is the grade in which you would be required to start if you want to be an engine driver."

"You will doubtless write again just before the time you are due to leave school."

And at the bottom of the official form letter Elliott added in his own writing: "Best of luck to you."

POP Goes the QUEEN

By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

JOHN HENRY squinted at the luminous dial of his wrist watch. It was nearly hour hours since they'd left the Bar & Ranch. The moon was directly overhead now, melting the shadows at the bottom of the tortuous canyons.

He stood up in the stirrups and tried to find a more comfortable position. Sin twisted around on her horse, her tired face pale in the moonlight. "Something wrong, honey?"

"I was just wishing this horse and I would have a meeting of minds," he called. "We've met every place else."

Beyond her, Trim halted his horse and said, "Not so much talking, please, if Barselou hears us—"

John Henry looked into moody silence. The constant prospect of sheer canyon after sheer canyon was monotonous. He punched a knee into his horse and it stopped.

"I meant giddap, Nightmare," he said wearily and tried a heel. He came up alongside the other two riders.

"You do think we must be nearly there, don't you, Mr. Trim?" Sin was asking anxiously. The Federal agent was inde- fatigable. He sat erect and alert in the saddle, apparently as fresh as when they had ridden away from the ranch house. His narrow shoulders shrugged under the blue buccaneer coat. "I hope you can answer that better than I can, Mrs. Conover. How many more numbers are there?"

Sin pushed her eyes shut and put her hands to her cheeks. She felt wrong dry. "I don't know," she confessed finally. "Two or three, I guess. They just seem to come one at a time."

Trim pushed his cocked hat back farther on his bald head and grinned encouragement. "Didn't mean to hound you. Guess I'm getting a little worn down myself. I keep worrying over what the office would say if they could see me now. What's next?"

"Right now," Sin replied automatically. . . .

TRIM flicked his reins and began to move toward the next gap in the high stone corridor. The Conovers trailed after him. Sin drooped in the saddle, her hair bouncing at every lurch of her horse. Her husband put over a comforting hand and stroked her shoulder. She lifted her head and smiled wanly at him.

For a while after they made the turn into a new chasm, there was no sound except the clip-clop of hoofs and the occasional swish of a tail. A spark enlivened the gloom now and then as an iron shoe glanced off rock. The walls, oddly carved by the wind, towered almost 100 feet over their heads.

Trim reined in. He lifted his pug nose upward, sniffing. Sin whispered, "What is it?"

"We're getting close," Trim muttered. "How come? Whoa, Nightmare!"

"Do you smell anything?" The Conovers sniffed tentatively. "I caught a whiff of smoke just then. Campfire."

"Barselou?"

"Maybe." Trim sucked air over his teeth. "Or Mr. Jones."

John Henry's sleepiness disappeared as excitement hit him like a cold shower. Sin's eyelids quit may be obtained at the door or from any club officer. Mrs. Ben Beerup and Tom Stout comprise the committee in charge.

The club plans to hold a similar dance every other week in an effort to raise money to purchase playground equipment for the Jefferson school.

The first such event took place at the auction house on March 4. More than 100 persons attended.

Before the days of night flying, airmail was carried by plane during the day, and transferred to trains at night.

drooping. "I'm scared," she said needlessly.

"The horses make noise enough. I don't have to warn you two to be quiet from now on."

"I'll say you don't."

The FBI man straightened in his saddle. "What's the next one, Mrs. Conover?"

Sin squinted studiously. The number seemed to elude her. "Left—left—two," she said doubtfully. Trim's horse plodded forward.

THEY passed the first gray mouth of a canyon on the left. Sin caught her first scent of burning wood. Despite the danger it presaged, the familiar fragrance soothed her nervousness. There was other human life in all this desolation.

She frowned suddenly. They had passed the second left-hand canyon. Sin cupped her hands beside her mouth and called after the little pirate softly. Trim wheeled his mount around and rode back. John Henry caught up with them once more.

"What is it, Mrs. Conover?"

"You've made a mistake," Sin explained. "We passed the second canyon just then."

"Oh, that," deprecated Trim. "You were the one who made the mistake—not I. Your memory's phenomenal, Mrs. Conover. But that last direction should be 'left three,' not 'left two.'"

He dropped his reins on his saddle horn and opened his fist. Lying in the palm was a strip of oiled paper, a narrow curling strip of directions which began, R-1, L-3, R-2 . . .

Sin's lips moved but no sound came out. John Henry's mouth hung open loosely.

With his other hand Trim plucked the wooden pistol from his belt. He let John Henry stare at the cork on a string that was stuck in the muzzle. "Please be sensible, both of you. The cork is laughable but it comes out—followed by a very real bullet."

John Henry saw his world reeling around his head. He spoke and didn't know what he said. "Mr. Jones," he croaked, "I presume?"

MacMurray Students' Art Exhibit Mar. 15-28

An exhibition of art work by students of MacMurray College art department will be on display at Strawn Memorial gallery from March 15 through March 28.

The works will consist of painting, life drawing, commercial advertising, ceramics, fashion drawing and costume design. In addition to work in these media, examples of exercise in design, color theory, texture study and compositional analysis will be shown.

There will also be several examples of original dresses designed and executed by members of the class in costume design.

Items from first year courses will feature work in a variety of media which acquaint the student with difference pictorial problems such as exercises in the structural and decorative possibilities of three-dimensional wire and paper sculpture, linoleum cuts, landscape drawing and design problems.

Since the intent of MacMurray's art department is to encourage students in developing individual manner of expression rather than conforming to set "styles," the result is a variety of work ranging from a realistic approach to abstract solution of a project.

A selection of art books from Pfeiffer Library will be available so that those interested may find added information on art work, theory and education.

James E. Guy, Clara Skinner Guy and Charlotte S. Cleland, members of the MacMurray art faculty, have arranged the exhibit.

Two Farms, 4 Houses Auctioned; $325 An Acre For One Tract

Morgan county farm land brought more than $300 an acre for the second time in two weeks at public auction Saturday morning, when four residence properties and two farms were sold at the south door of the court house.

One of the farms brought $325 an acre while another brought $60 per acre. All four residence properties were located in Jacksonville. Middendorf Bros. were the auctioneers.

Three of the residence properties were in the estate of the late Ethel Rayborn, as were the two farms. The other residence was owned by Elmore Suter. The total amount brought by the Rayborn estate properties was $97,275.

R. E. Harmon was the attorney for the Rayborn estate while Edward J. Flynn represented Mr. Suter.

The Elmore Suter property located at 831 South Church street was the first property sold. The five room house is all modern, has a double garage and is located on a lot 30x175. The house was purchased by Gordon Lemme on his bid of $8,000.

Residence Brings $9,585
The Rayborn residence at 831 Grove street was next place on sale. This is an 8-room modern frame house with stoker heat and is situated on a lot 165 by 300 feet. Bidding was spirited on this property. The purchaser was Ballard Hacker on his bid of $9,585.

A 6-room modern frame house at 215 West Beacher avenue was purchased by Mrs. Martha D. Rhodes for $7,000. This house is located on a lot 40x160 feet and has a garage.

Mrs. Lula Henderson, purchased a 5-room modern house at 662 South Prairie street on a bid of $4,810. This house is on lot 62x130 feet.

Three heirs of the Rayborn estate, William Beilschmidt, Inez Beilschmidt and Oley M. Beilschmidt, were the high bidders on the 208 acre farm located seven miles northeast of Jacksonville, offering $325 an acre or a total of approximately $67,600.

A 138 acre farm located one mile east of Route 67 on the Roodhouse-Scottville road, was the last tract offered at the Rayborn sale. This farm was purchased by H. Vernon Ballard on a bid of $60 an acre or a total of $8,280.

The sale attracted a large crowd and there were a number of bidders on all the tracts.

Siam Mourns Siamese Cats

Bangkok (AP)—The Siamese cat ain't what he used to be.

A Siamese cat show held recently at Lumpini Park revealed what happens when proper attention is not paid to improvement of the breed—it's difficult to find a true Siamese cat anymore in Siam.

Too much mixed breeding and the absence of a good local cat show where pedigreed felines can be bred were put forth as major causes of the situation.

In fact, one expert said sadly, exhibitors themselves apparently forgot how to distinguish between the true Siamese and just any cat born in Siam.

Envoy Sees Red Decline In Asia

Bangkok (AP)—India's minister to Bangkok believes Communism has lost ground in Asia because it is unsuited to the temperaments and aims of the people of Asia.
Bhagwat Dayal thinks even China, after a few months of Communist rule, will evolve into a unified, nationalistic country, not an offshoot of Russian Communism.

"This is logical," he said, "because the Chinese Communists apparently include a great many dissatisfied but actually nationalistic elements which are sick of corruption and of the long war."
"The violence of Communist methods is also alien to the religious beliefs of Southeast Asia and even India," he added.

Carrollton Lions Club Presents Plaque to FHA

Carrollton—Fred Hartman, as president of the FFA of the local high school, received a bronze plaque, the gift of the local Lions club Thursday evening at the dinner meeting of the club held in the Presbyterian church. The plaque will be placed in the school building. Every boy who has as his project a litter of pigs that develop into a ton litter at six months of age will have the honor of having his name placed on the plaque.

The local meeting of the Lions scheduled for April 7 has been cancelled. Members of the club here will be guests of the Greenfield Lions club on that date at a zone meeting.

Howard Stewart was a guest of the club Thursday evening. W. C. Scott, assistant to J. C. Hackleman, extension specialist in crops from the University of Illinois, will be the speaker at a meeting of Greene county farmers to be held March 16 at eight p. m. in the court house. Scott will discuss crop varieties, insects and weed controls. His subject will provide an opportunity for local farmers to become familiar with the new types of insect and weed sprays.

You can determine whether a fabric contains acetate by buying a bottle of acetone at your drugstore and applying a drop of it to a hidden part of the garment, such as an inner seam. If fabric becomes sticky and then hardens as acetone evaporates you will know that acetate is present. In that case special cleaning methods must be employed.

Sweet Sixteen Will Be Cut To Eight As Final Play Begins Thursday

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—(P)—The 42nd annual Illinois high school basketball title scramble enters the brass tracks stage Thursday in first round games of the 16-team final at Champaign.

Eight more sturdy survivors from the 74 team starting field will be sidelined in the colorful, gay long opening card at Huff gym.

Quarterfinals on Friday nominate the four elite title chasers which compete in Saturday's matinee semifinals, paving the way for the climactic championship battle Saturday night.

Showdown competition will begin with Elmhurst tall Maroons probably the popular favorite to succeed Pinckneyville's 1938 tag winner.

Until late in the campaign, sports writers were nearly unanimous in tagging Coach John Kraft's lad as the standard quintet downstate. Their stock dipped briefly but now appears to have rebounded to new heights after successive victories over three top-notch area powers—Dundee, DeKalb and Oak Park.

Elmhurst pries the lid off against West Aurora's Blackhawks in the fourth upper bracket tilt. By a double point, West Aurora last month beat the Maroons the first of their three defeats. That was when Bob Peterson, ace Elmhurst scorer, was out with the measles and Thursday the Blackhawks will be cast in an underdog role.

Elmhurst clears this initial hurdle the next day will be the winner of R.O.V.A. (O'Connell) vs Tilden Tech of Chicago.

Neither seems capable of an upset, although Tilden (won 19, lost 7) has plenty of height and R.O.V.A. showed steadiness in compiling a handsome 27-4 record. R.O.V.A. of Knox county is the smallest school in the finals with 143 enrolled.

The big argument looks like it may come in the upper bracket semifinal from either Mr. Vernon's high scoring Rams or Johnston City, paired in Thursday's second game.

Mr. Vernon's reign in southern Illinois was successfully challenged only three times in the campaign—by Salem, Centralia and Johnston City. Each showed up the game and carried off a one-point decision.

Since then, Fairfield tried the tactic and the Rams had an answer. The question is: Can Johnston City hot streak in which Johnston City has stacked up 13 triumphs in a row.

Barring the victor's path to the semifinal will be Decatur's R.D.s, unless Pittsfield (21-6) comes up with a surprise.

Decatur shapes up as a darkhorse entry. Unpredictable most of the season, the Reds lately have been responding to the prodding of Coach Gay Kinnier, who is bringing his ninth team to the state finals and entering for a record fourth crown.

The Kinniermen demonstrated plenty of strength in knocking down Clinton and Mt. Pleasant by wide margins to top their own sectional tournament.

In the lower grouping, Moline and Nashville pack a lot of power, but so do Hillsboro and Robinson.

Joe Triner Of Oak Park To Head New Athletic Group

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—(P)—Governor Stevenson today appointed a new state athletic commission headed by Joe Triner, 34, of Oak Park, who was chairman from 1933 to 1941.

Named to round out the three man board were Ralph H. McCallie, 33, of Chicago, former Olympic track star, and Louis R. Ruffalo, 33, co-director of athletics for the Catholic Youth organization in Chicago.

Retired by the appointments were Sheldon Clark of Chicago, chairman, and Fred W. Turk of Peoria, a commission member. The third post has been vacant since the recent death of Roy D. Keelin.

Triner's previous commission service was by appointment of the late Democratic Governor Horner.

The new chairman is a former president of the National Boxing Association and of the United States Football Association. He is chairman of the Illinois Soccer Commission and a past member of the United States Olympic committee and of the World Boxing Board.

Triner's previous commission service was by appointment of the late Democratic Governor Horner.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—Hogs, cattle and sheep were quoted steady in the usual dull Saturday market today.

Prices trends in the market this week were generally higher, highlighted by an advance in lambs to the top March price on record. A peak of $28.75 was paid as Eastern order buyers competed sharply for receipts down 50 cent from last year.

Hogs scored good advances early in the week, but lost most of this around as the week ended. Final prices were 25 cents higher than last week-end. Receipts declined, as was normal at this time of year, but no real strength developed in wholesale dressed pork.

Grain fed steers declined, but nearly everything else in the cattle section advanced. An active demand developed for feeders and stockers. Dressed beef prices firmed. Receipts of cattle at leading markets this week jumped 22,000 head above last week's run.

To Study Proposed Stiffer Penalties For Personal Foul

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—A proposal for stiffer penalties on personal fouls will be studied by the national basketball committee at its annual meeting in Seattle, Wash., March 27-28.

The 1949-50 playing code for colleges and high schools will be drafted at the session.

H. V. Porter, committee secretary, said today at least a half-dozen rule amendments have been proposed. Several variations are included in the proposal to inflict a more severe penalty for a foul. One is to award two free shots for any personal committed in the closing minutes.

Another is to award the ball to the thrower of a successful free throw in the same period, or give the ball to the fouled team whether or not the free throw is made.

A more extreme suggestion is to award the ball to the free thrower after any free throw during the entire game, this eliminating all line-ups along the free throw lane.

Michigan Normal Takes Illinois Tech Relays

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—With only two events remaining—the sprint medley and pole vault, Michigan Normal tonight was conceded its fourth straight Illinois Tech relay college championship. The Ypsilanti team had piled up 61 points, its nearest competitor, Baldwin-Wallace had 22.

Garrison Campbell of Michigan Normal shot through the 70-yard dash in :07.0 to tie the American indoor record tonight in the Illinois Tech relays.

Campbell, a 23-year-old junior, had tied the meet record of :07.1 earlier in preliminary trials. His clothing in the finals equals the American mark set by Loren Murphree in 1926 and matched by Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette in 1933 and Dick Houdon of Wisconsin in 1947.

Harold Omer of Purdue won the one-tenth second shy of tying the University section mark in the meet. Loyola University, of Chicago, hoisted a meet record in the college one mile relay with a 3:21.1 clip. Loyola beat its own mark of 3:23.5 set last year.

Notre Dame's Bill Fleming winged to first in the university 70-yard high hurdles in :08.6, one-tenth second off the meet record. Roy Grieve of Bradley took the college highs in :08.8.

NCAA Grid Group Finishes Rues Recodification

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—The football committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association adjourned today after adding finishing touches to a recodified set of rules.

The NCAA rulebook had been rewritten by a special sub-committee to clarify and simplify a code which generally had been operative since 1928.

The recodification was a project separate from the rule changes recommended at the committee's meeting in Palm Springs, Calif., earlier this year.

Chairman Bill Bingham of Harvard said the full committee was dismissed after reviewing the recommendations of the special committee and that a four-member editorial committee would complete work on the code tomorrow.

The latter group included Bingham, H. O. "Fritz" Crisler of Michigan, Elwood Geiges of Temple and A. R. Hutchens of Lake Wales, Fla.

Hamline University Beats Regis College To Take NAIB Tourney

Kansas City, March 12.—(P)—Hamline University of St. Paul, won its second national intercollegiate (NAIB) basketball championship by beating Regis College of Denver, 57 to 46, tonight.

A crowd of slightly under 10,000, the largest ever to witness a basketball game here, saw the finals. The paid attendance was 9,600.

Hamline, who won the NAIB championship in 1942, became the first team to annex two titles. Its great stars, Hal Haskins and Vern Mikkelsen, poured in 21 and 18 points, respectively.

Beloit (Wis.) College won third place in the six-day, 32 game case marathon by whipping the Indiana State Sycamores of Terre Haute, 67-59 in the consolation match.

Hamline was ahead 12 to 4 after the first 10 minutes. Regis had scored one field goal up to that time. The Denver team tried desperately to stay in the contest. It put on its strongest rally in the last four minutes as Don Heffley and Bob Wallace each threw in a couple of field goals before the half time gap.

Regis couldn't whittle Hamline's lead although Center Don Heffley, who scored 14 points, and Bob Fisher were standouts in a team that never quit trying.

At one time in the second half, Hamline led by 23 points, 53-30.

Hamline, a 5-point favorite, controlled the rebounds under both baskets. Haskins, who was voted the most valuable player award by news-men and officials, either tipped in the rebounds or got possession of the ball for the Pipers. Mikkelsen beating Regis College of Denver, 57 to 46, tonight.

More than half of Regis field goals were scored from long range. The Rangers missed four layins in the first half that could have kept them in the game. They were unsteady against the fine Hamline defense.

Johnny Orr's 28 points was the big noise in the Beloit (Wis.) 67 to 59 victory over Indiana State in the consolation game.

A. B. C. Delegates Vote To Keep Ban Against Negroes

Atlantic City, N. J., March 12.—(P)—Negroes will continue to remain outside the American Bowling Congress. For the third straight year ABC delegates yesterday turned thumbs down on an amendment to delete the words "individuals of the white male sex" from their constitution.

Officials of the Congress would not comment on the rejection.

The Rev. Charles Carow of the Catholic youth organization of Brooklyn, N. Y., who sponsored the amendment, took himself out of the picture.

After the delegates voted overwhelmingly to defeat his amendment, the priest took the floor and said:

"It was better to have fought and lost than not to have fought at all."

There was one bright spot in the proceedings for Father Carow. Another Catholic priest, the Rev. Michael S. Wasiewski of Denmark, Wis., resigned from the ABC board of executive directors. Father Wasiewski said he quit after seven years as an executive director "as a matter of principle."

St. Paul, Minn., was selected as the site for the 1951 ABC tournament.

White Sox Take First From Browns

Burbank, Calif., March 12.—(P)—The Chicago White Sox hopped on the St. Louis Browns for six runs in the first three innings and coasted to a 6 to 3 victory today to pry open the Grapefruit schedule for both clubs.

A two-run triple by Pitcher Al Gettel was the big blow in a 4-run second inning blast against Browns' Starter Ned Garver. In all, Gettel batted in three runs and scored another. He also blanked the Browns with one hit over a four-inning stretch.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

State College, Pa., March 12.—(P)—Things you hear here . . . Bo McMillin, who left Indiana U. for a $30,000 job with the Detroit Lions, may be looking over the college field again after only one season with the pros. . . . Bo is said to be one of the 55 applicants for the Syracuse University job. . . . So is his assistant, Lou Zarza. . . . Dick Harlow, a former president of the intercollegiate boxing association, declined an invitation to be a guest at the current tournament here because of his health. . . . Instead he went to the Duke University hospital and reports are that the setback may keep him from his "advisory" coaching at Western Maryland and from tutoring the eastern all-star team next fall. . . . Eddie Lafond of Catholic University, long-time referee at the college boxing championship, is making his first appearance as a coach with a team composed entirely of engineers.

In One Ear

The White Sox have dropped Luke Appling's nickname of "The Tired Man" in favor of "The Talking Man." Luke is glibly as all getout this spring. . . . Looks like Penn State will get Avatus Stone, sought after Washington schoolboy basketball, although Red Auerbach, the Washington Caps' coach, tried to detour him to Columbia. . . . Joe Louis and Harry Mendel are in Miami trying to line up a Willie Pep-Sandy Saddler fight. Harry didn't think it funny when his New York friends asked to be remembered to the boys at Gulfstream. . . . Horace Wade, one of the more important boys at Gulfstream, has been named racing secretary for Hazel Park, the new Detroit association. . . . Although Penn State's spring football practice is scheduled to start Monday, some observers here are surprised at the lack of enthusiasm in the preparations.

Foot Fault

Aschenfelder, Penn State Distance running star, missed most of the indoor season because of a broken bone in his right foot. . . . and he just recently remembered how it happened. . . . Horace, a phys ed student, attended a football coaching class last November. . . . During an idle moment, he picked up a loose football and kicked it. . . . He felt a twinge of pain then, but didn't think anything of it, even when he learned the bone was broken. . . . That's what happens when a two-mile tries to kick a football as far as he could run with it.

Waverly Citizens Discuss $400,000 School Bond Issue

A town meeting to study the $400,000 bond issue for Waverly Community unit school district was held Saturday night in the Waverly Legion hall. The issue will be voted on Monday, March 14.

John T. Hackett, president of the Morgan county Taxpayers association, presented a survey prepared on the proposal by Mrs. Verna B. Grain, director of educational research of the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois. The survey was conducted under the sponsorship of the Morgan association.

The proposal would call for authorizing the Board of Education to purchase a site upon which to build a new school house; build a new school house on the site to be selected; issue bonds of community unit district six in the amount of $400,000, with interest of not more than 3 per cent yearly to be paid semi-annually over 20 years; and permit an additional indebtedness of community unit district six of 24 per cent for constructing and equipping school buildings.

Other Jacksonville men, John Deem, county superintendent of schools, and Attorney Bruce Thomson led the guest in period that followed the survey.

The Waverly committee consisted of Robert Shekelton, who presided; G. C. Huffer, Carl Dwyer, Frank Richard and Mrs. Helen Turnbull.

IC Quintet Wins Crown Tilt In Local 'Y' Cage Meet 53-44

The IC Quintet outlasted the OWls in the finals of the Jacksonville YMCA independent cage tournament Saturday night, and won the championship play by a neat 53 to 44 score.

The intra-hilltopper bout was the climax of a week of hard-fought independent basketball, during which both of these finalists had to win three games to wind up on the extreme outer bracket. Both of these victories were easily the pick of the 12 teams entered and treated the crowd to some snappy basketball in the crown tilt.

DeGroot Lead Winners

The Quintet, paced by Howard DeGroot, their lanky center, set the pace from the opening whistle to a final gun, and made the Owl squad play their style of ball all the way. The champions held a 9-5 advantage at the end of the initial period of play, and were never headed at any point in the bout by the Owl crew, although the losers fought mightily and came within 3 or 4 tallies of knotting the count on several occasions.

Illinois Favored To Cop Big Nine Fencing Meet

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—Illinois was favored to dethrone Northwestern today in the annual Western Conference fencing meet in Illinois Navy pier gymnasium.

Northwestern was a surprise winner last year with 28 points. Illinois finished second with 27.

In addition to these two schools, only Wisconsin and Ohio State will send teams. Minnesota, which finished fifth in 1948, will not compete.

NCAA May Adopt Simpler, Clearer Grid Rules Book

Chicago, March 12.—(P)—A simplified and clarified football rules book will be studied for adoption by the football committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association today.

At the same time this group is meeting, faculty representatives of the Western Conference will convene for final consideration of the Big Nine's revised handbook.

Recondition of the NCAA rules started a year ago when the collegiate body and the National Federation of High School Associations appeared ready to collaborate on a joint prep-collegiate code. The two groups, however, failed to agree and continued their separate set of rules.

The western conference rule book has been undergoing revision for two years. Printer's proofs will be viewed today. The Big Nine faculty group also may study eligibility cases of several Northwestern and Indiana football players whose varsity status was questioned after they played in recent amateur basketball games.

Cleveland Defeats Giants 10 To 5

Tucson, Ariz., March 12.—(P)—Cleveland's Indians combined good pitching with a 13-hit assault today to defeat the New York Giants 10 to 5 in their opening exhibition game.

Herman Reich, first baseman obtained from Portland, and Orrestes Minoso, rookie third baseman, were the big guns in the tribe attack, driving in eight of the team's 10 runs.

What Will Be Your Answer?

Will a new, completely modern hospital be built here to serve the urgent needs of 50,000 people in this area?

Will we be able to take advantage of federal and state grants-in-aid totalling $1,400,000 for the construction of a medical center which will be as well equipped as any in downtown Illinois?

The answers to these questions, so vital to the individual welfare of every resident of this area, depend upon the outcome of the Passavant Memorial Area Hospital campaign.

In this effort, although the task is great, we simply cannot afford to fail. The goal is attainable if we all do our part without stint.

had to be turned down. What would we do in the event of an epidemic or community catastrophe?

For some time now a large group of civic leaders from the area has been actively at work completing the organizational structure and preliminary groundwork for this great appeal. Very shortly the general campaign will be launched and you will not doubt be called upon to help answer the question, "Will we have a new hospital?" Your affirmative answer through a meaningful gift, will be your answer for yourself, your family, your friends and for generations yet unborn.

In this effort, although the task is great, we simply cannot afford to fail. The goal is attainable if we all do our part without stint.

The sum required to be raised is large. $400,000 is needed to add to $300,000 already on hand in order to provide for one-third of the cost of the new hospital. This local share of $100,000 must be on hand before federal and state grants are released.

It is no exaggeration to say that this is the biggest campaign ever attempted in this community. It is also the most important! No more urgent appeal to meet a dire and pressing need has ever been presented. Our present hospital facilities are woefully inadequate. Even in normal times the corridors and hallways of our two hospitals are crowded with extra beds and cots. Waiting list for hospital admissions have been necessary and it has happened recently that even emergency patients have

Freshmen Win Intra-Class Cage Meet At I.S.D.

The I.S.D. gymnasium was the scene of some scrappy basketball games Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening, when the annual intra-class cage tournament was staged.

Pupils who had been on the regular Tiger varsity through the past season did not play for their respective classes but acted as coaches for their classmates.

In the Friday night tilts the sophomores defeated the seniors 41 to 28 and the freshman took the juniors 41 to 26.

Saturday afternoon the sophomores tangled with the juniors in a red hot game and won out over the elders 36-35. In the fourth game of the meet, the seniors dumped the freshmen 48 to 41.

In the wind-up games, the freshmen dropped the sophomores 36 to 26, and the juniors outplayed the seniors 36 to 28.

Since no quintet kept a clean slate, the trophy was awarded to the team that made the greatest number of points during the tournament. The freshmen class represented the school with a total of 118 points.

The coveted sportsmanship trophy went to the seniors. T. J. Kline, assistant superintendent, presented the award.

The team personnel for each squad included: Seniors—Early, Kline, Huber, Welborn, Paul, Merriman, Birkland and Yates, coach, Juniors—Score, L. Raffel, Nunes, Zuziak, coach.
